

From: Electronic Dispatch
To: Electronic Dispatch
Subject: Digital Dispatch - December 2011
Date: Friday, December 16, 2011 10:18:58 AM

---

THE AMERICAN LEGION Dispatch

A National Headquarters Publication

Your December 2011 digital edition of The American Legion Dispatch has arrived!

Here is what you will find in this month's issue:

- Contents
- Membership: TO REVIVE A POST
- Flag Advocacy: Flag Rewards program paying off for posts, communities
- Commander's Message: Principles above personalities
- Planner: December, January, and February
- National Adjutant's Message: Almost home for the holidays
- Post Activities: Consolidated Post Reports available in January
- Tell Us Your Story: What is your post doing this Christmas?
- Volunteering: Legion volunteer numbers growing
- Veterans Health Care: Construction of $800 million Denver VAMC set to begin, but when?
- Meetings: Discount airfare offered for 2012 Legion meetings
- Troop Support: Where connections are made
- Scholarships: Hockey game nets $8,000 for Legacy fund
- Dateline Capitol Hill: 112th Congress: A look at the first session
- TAPS
- Membership Incentives

Click this link to view the December 2011 Digital Dispatch Digital Dispatch - December 2011

Volume 6, Issue No. 21, 2012

TO REVIVE A POST

With an estimated $100,000 in expenses, it's a big challenge for many posts.

By [Author Name]

The American Legion Post 1234 in [Location] is currently facing a significant financial challenge. The post, which has a long and storied history, is struggling to cover the costs of maintaining its facilities and providing services to its members. The estimated $100,000 in expenses is a heavy burden for many posts, especially those in rural areas with lower membership numbers.

Flag Rewards program paying off for posts, communities

The American Legion's Flag Rewards program is proving to be a valuable resource for posts and communities. The program allows members to earn rewards for their service, which can be used to support various community projects and initiatives. This has been particularly helpful for posts that are struggling financially, as the rewards can be used to offset the costs of maintaining their facilities and providing services to their members.

AMERICAN LEGION

Flag Rewards program paying off for posts, communities

Post 1234 is currently facing a significant financial challenge. The post, which has a long and storied history, is struggling to cover the costs of maintaining its facilities and providing services to its members. The estimated $100,000 in expenses is a heavy burden for many posts, especially those in rural areas with lower membership numbers.

Flag Rewards program paying off for posts, communities

The American Legion's Flag Rewards program is proving to be a valuable resource for posts and communities. The program allows members to earn rewards for their service, which can be used to support various community projects and initiatives. This has been particularly helpful for posts that are struggling financially, as the rewards can be used to offset the costs of maintaining their facilities and providing services to their members.